GENERAL NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.

The Rhode Island Election—No Choice for Governor.

PROVIDENCE, April 8.—The state election resulted in no choice for governor and lieutenant governor, the democrats having polled a considerable vote in the other part of the day. Returns from thirty towns, including one ward of this city, give Littlefield 9,250; Kimball, (Dem.) 4200; Howard, (republican and independent republican), 2631. The towns generally exhibit irregular and surprising results. Some democratic districts show republican success and strong republican towns divide their votes between the three candidates. Newport gives Littlefield 1,058; Howard, 432; Kimball, 316. The republican candidates for secretary of state, attorney general and general treasurer are elected by about the usual majority, there being no third candidates for those offices. The general assembly will be three quarters republican, insuring the election of Littlefield. Returns from all towns in the state except Block Island give Littlefield, 13,018; Kimball, 6021; Howard, 6006.

Kansas City goes Democratic.

KANSAS CITY, April 8.—The democrats carried the city and gain one councilman.

Republican Primaries in Massachusetts.

BOSTON, April 7.—Caucuses were held in all wards of this city to-night to select delegates to the state convention. Returns from all but two wards indicate a preference for Sherman as first choice. Edmunds and Grant are about equal as second. Of 127 delegates 38 were known to be anti-Grant. Several towns throughout the state held caucuses to-day. Returns thus far indicate in the aggregate a preference for Edmunds.

Convicted of Embezzlement.

LOUISVILLE, April 8.—J. H. Rohrer, defaulting cashier of the late savings bank of Louisville, indicted for the embezzlement of $110,000 from the bank, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for one year. The venerable prisoner attempted no defense, but pleaded guilty, throwing himself on the mercy of the court. The verdict was the lightest punishment the law permitted.

Grant's Movements at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 8.—Gen. Grant held a reception this morning at the residence of Col. James Lewis, and afterwards visited the state university where he was received by the school children. Late in the day he visited Mayor Patton at the city hall, and this afternoon held a reception at Gov. Pinchback's, mainly for members of the colored men's protective union. The governor's residence was handsomely decorated.

Suicides at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 8.—The body of Albert Sched, city editor of the Anzeiger, was found in the lake last night four miles from this city. He had waded in and cut his throat. He was educated, but dissolute, and had been discharged.

George Savage, a well known shoe dealer, crazy with reverses, nearly severed his head from his body with a shoe knife last night. He was found dead in bed.

Disaster at Sea.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., April 8.—The fishing schooner Annie E. Norwood, with Capt. Hurst and a crew of fourteen men, is supposed to have been lost in the March gales.

Whittaker Denies.

POUGHKEEPSIE, April 8.—Cadet Whittaker is very indignant at the suspicion that he mutilated himself, and has asked for a court of inquiry, which convenes Friday. The affair grows more perplexing.

Fire at Rochester.

ROCHESTER, April 8.—A manufacturing establishment owned by Isaac Butts, and of late occupied by sash, door and blind manufacturers was burned to-night. Loss about $100,000; insurance $20,000.

Business Failures.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Hinson & Chroming, cotton commission merchants, No. 113 Water street, have suspended. The house was the most extensive connected with the exchange. The members are unable to give any correct statement. They did not have contracts of their own amounting to over 500,000 bales, and these would not involve them more than $5000. Their contracts with their customers were large, and to-day when called upon to put up a margin, they failed to respond, and suspension followed. Their liabilities are said to be large.

BOSTON, April 8.—Jackson & Morse, grain importers of this city, failed to-day. The failure is believed to be due to wheat speculations in Chicago. Liabilities about $80,000.

CHICAGO, April 8.—The Babcock manufacturing company, which sold out its business in November, 1878, and has been since then winding up its affairs, was compelled to-day to place matters in the hands of an assignee, David Quigg; liabilities, $125,000; assets, $70,000. A large quantity of bonds bearing heavy interest and coming due shortly caused the failure.

Memorial Service.

Channing memorial services were held last night at Music hall. Addresses were delivered by Drs. Swing, Thomas, Lorimer, Withrow, Alger and others, and letters of regret read from Whittier, Edward E. Hall, G. W. Curtis and Rev. W. H. Bellows.

Miles' Raid.

Gen. Miles telegraphs from Fort Keogh to headquarters here that the soldiers, who have been pursuing the hostiles for 200 miles, have captured five warriors and forty-five horses and ponies. Twelve Indians escaped in the dark. The Indians are thirty-four days from Sitting Bull's camp, and claim that the white men in Canada sent them across the line to steal stock.

WASHINGTON CITY.

A Message from the President on Pending Chinese Negotiations Forthcoming.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Representative Willis, of Kentucky, last Friday wrote to Secretary Evarts that he intended to offer a resolution in the house calling attention to the fact that the president had made no response to the resolution of February 25th, by which he was requested to furnish information, if not incompatible with public interests, as to what progress had been made in the matter of negotiation with China for a modification of the Burlingame treaty. Secretary Evarts, instead of replying to this letter in the usual manner, called upon Mr. Willis personally and requested him to withhold his resolution for a few days; and said that the matter would be attended to. Willis accordingly waited till yesterday, and then again wrote to Secretary Evarts, stating that he would be obliged by his sense of public duty to offer the resolution without further delay unless positively assured that the house inquiry of February 12th, would be answered very soon. This last communication to-day elicited from Mr. Evarts an unofficial letter to Mr. Willis saying that an answer is being prepared and will be sent to the house of representatives without delay. Willis being still dissatisfied with the vagueness of the phrase, "without delay," then inquired what limit of time it was intended to indicate, and Evarts finally promised that the answer (which will be in the form a message from the president) shall be sent in during the present week.

A Bill to Provide Retired Army Officers with Something to do.

An amendment to the army appropriation bill was offered to-day by Representative Harry White and adopted, authorizing the president on the request of any incorporated college to detail an army officer from the retired list to act as military professor thereof. This amendment attains the purpose which Page had for the benefit of the California university, by the amendment which he proposed yesterday, but which the adoption of White's amendment now renders unnecessary.

Personal and Political.

Gen. Garfield is being urged to allow his name to be used as district delegate to the Ohio state convention which is to be held on the 28th inst., at Columbus. It is represented to Garfield that should he decline, there is danger that a Blaine delegate will be chosen. The district in which Gen. Garfield resides is in the western reserve of Ohio, where the Blaine feeling is the strongest.

Channing Memorial Service at Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—A large audience gathered at All Souls church to honor the memory of William Ellery Channing, Justice Miller presiding.

The "Star" Bill Approved.

The president has approved the star service deficiency bill.

Judge Wright, of Virginia, to be Pardoned.

It is understood that the president has issued a pardon to Judge John W. Wright.

The Coming Transfer of Power.

LONDON, April 8.—The Times in a leading article on the election [illegible] that it may be taken as granted that a transfer of power will [illegible].

The "Standard's" Comment.

LONDON, April 8.—The Standard [illegible] the real significance of the polls is that the liberals will be able to dispense with the support of the home rule vote. The liberal net gain is now eighty-one seats.

Young Gladstone will Try Again.

Herbert Gladstone, liberal, son of Hon. W. E. Gladstone, who was defeated for Middlesex, will stand as a candidate for Leeds, his father, who was returned for Leeds and Midlothian, having elected to accept the latter. R. Assheton Cross, home secretary, is reelected for Lancashire, southwest. Additional returns show a liberal gain of eight seats.

More about Bismarck's Resignation.

BERLIN, April 8.—In parliamentary circles it is considered certain that the bundesrath will reconsider the bill passed by that body imposing imperial stamp duties, and agree with the views of Bismarck. A statement that Bismarck tendered his resignation three days ago and that upon the emperor's refusal to accept it he tendered it again, on the ground of ill health, is unfounded. Bismarck only tendered his resignation on Monday. The decision of the emperor regarding his resignation is not yet made known.

The Bundesrath will Come to Bismarck's Terms.

LONDON, April 8.—The Times' Berlin special says: On all hands it is not for a moment doubted that Bismarck will succeed in carrying his point, and in an interview to which he was summoned by the emperor, he doubtless heard enough to induce him to withdraw his resignation. The rules applying to voting by proxy in the bundesrath may be modified, though there seems to be no intention of otherwise changing the constitution. In view of the determined attitude of Bismarck, the bundesrath will probably recall or correct its vote, while it is said that the wrath of Bismarck will not be wholly appeased without the sacrifice of certain high officials.

Bismarck will not be Allowed to Resign.

The emperor had a long conference with the crown prince, at which it was determined that Bismarck should remain in office.

Bismarck's Health.

Bismarck is so ill that he has not slept for several nights, and walks or stands with difficulty. His family urge rest and quiet.

COMMITTEE WORK.

Action of the Mining Committee on the California Debris Question, and the Proposed New Mining Law.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The committee on mines and mining being called for reports to-day, Berry reported the joint resolution heretofore agreed upon by the committee, which provides for the appointment of a commission of two civil engineers and one officer of the coast survey to investigate the debris question, and appropriates $250,000 to be forthwith expended under the direction of the secretary of war, for the protection of navigable streams of California from further injury by losses in debris now in mountain gorges. The joint resolution was placed on the calendar for future action. It will have to await its turn and is not likely to be reached for two months or more. Berry also submitted, in connection with this measure, a written argumentative report, the points of which have been already telegraphed.

The house mining committee also to-day reported a substitute for that portion of the public lands commissioners' bill, which relates to mineral lands. The principal changes made by the committee are as follows:

The new bill allows locators to hold their claims for one year before discovering mineral deposits, and gives them three years to apply for patents. No person will be allowed to take up a second claim until he shall either have struck minerals in his first location or else have abandoned it, the object of this proviso being of course to prevent wholesale absorption of mineral lands. The new bill provides that contests as to priority of location, etc., shall be settled by the courts as at present. The house committee fixes the price of mineral lands at $2.50 per acre instead of $5 as now charged, and fill the blank concerning the area locatable by any one person or association, by making the maximum a square of 960 feet or its equivalent in any rectangular shape; provided, that neither dimension shall exceed 1500 feet. The committee have not yet taken final action upon this bill and their object in reporting it to-day is to have it printed, so that copies may be mailed to all the mining states and territories, and elicit detailed comment, suggestions and a general expression of opinion from all persons interested. The committee will take no further action in regard to the subject until they shall thus have afforded the western people full opportunity to examine and discuss the whole measure.

The Mining Debris Question in a New Form.

The house committee on national affairs will next Monday take up documents received from Secretary Thompson some time ago exhibiting the extent to which Mare Island navy yard approaches have been shoaled, and will thereupon address themselves to a determination of the question of what should be done about it. California representatives in the house are invited to be present at this meeting; as it will undoubtedly lead to important general inquiries concerning the mining debris question they will all attend it.

Some Democratic Evidence.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Before the exodus committee to-day, Andrew Currier, mayor of Shreveport, La., declared relation between the races with few exceptions most friendly, and the exodus from that section was not over one per cent. Voting is unrestricted to the blacks who had all political rights. Once in 1868 the democrats tried to get colored men to vote because the blacks had agreed to remain away from the polls and let suspicion of intimidation be used. He declared that poor school facilities were due to the republican authorities having stolen the school funds while in power in the state. Things were better now, and growing better.

FROM THE SKAGIT.

Splendid Reports—New Discoveries on Sauk River—Etc., etc., etc.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SEATTLE, April 8.—The following special to the Skagit News was received by the last express from the head of navigation on the Skagit river:

GOODELL'S, April 5th.

Great excitement prevails here to-day over a rich strike on Sauk river. The past week has been warm. Snow melted sufficiently to admit of considerable prospecting on many bars along Sauk river, a few miles above its junction with the Skagit. Twenty-five cents to the pan was obtained in many places in top gravel, and almost every locality so far as prospected showed pay dirt. It has been the opinion of many old miners who have been in the vicinity this winter that the richest placers will be found in this section of the country, and these recent developments prove the correctness of their judgment. People are rushing in and staking off claims.

A new district will be organized only one day's travel from where the Seattle steamers land passengers. It is also learned from a party of miners just arrived from a prospecting tour around the portage that splendid prospects are being taken from the side hills and from the beds of small ravines. One ravine, only a mile from the portage, was thoroughly prospected, and yielded the finest looking gold yet found anywhere on the Skagit. The average prospect here was 32 cents to three pans of dirt.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

Second Day.

The convention was called to order at half past eight.

McArthur from the committee on the financial plank of the platform reported that the committee were utterly unable to agree or arrive at any conclusion, and asked that the committee be discharged.

Daly of Polk county offered the following:

Resolved, That the question of finance be left to the national democratic convention, to assemble at Cincinnati in June next.

Some more speech making and confusion ensued, in which Fred Holman [illegible] for his speech [illegible], abusing the U. S. supreme court, by making a splendid speech in favor of hard money. Judge Shattuck spoke eloquently against the minority report.

Audenreith moved to indefinitely postpone the report and subject matter, which was carried, but Huelat came to the front and offered the following:

Resolved, That while holding that gold and silver coin are the true and constitutional basis of value, we recognize the fact that there is another lawful currency in existence of equal value therewith in regard to the contraction or expansion of which democrats do and have a right to differ, and in view of the near approach of the national democratic convention, we regard it unnecessary to make any further declaration in regard thereto at this time.

Daly, of Polk, got the door and rather snappishly threw a hat across the hall for McArthur to crack, saying there were some men in the hall who had changed greatly in the last few years. Judge McArthur who had been during this convention such a strong hard money man, in 1870 in this very hall favored the repudiation resolution and fought for the payment of the national debt in paper. Judge McArthur then stated his position on the question of national finances saying:

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Convention: Although I have already expressed my views in relation to the duty of this convention to place itself and the democratic party of this state upon a platform the financial plank of which shall be one which shall coincide with the constitution and with the only true principle of finance, I beg that you will allow me to make a few remarks in reply to the personal allusions made by my friend who has just taken his seat.

It is true that ten years ago in this very courthouse, I urged the adoption of the eighth resolution, and it is with sorrow that I say it, made a speech in favor of repudiation. For many years I have deeply regretted the words uttered upon that occasion, and I thank God that I have long ago abandoned all such pernicious doctrines. At that time I was an ardent admirer of Senator Pendleton, and was thoroughly imbued with his ideas of finance. I was captivated with his brilliancy and audacity, and was his devout follower. In the years that have rolled by, I have studied the question of finance more deeply. The debates upon the constitution, the federalist, and the most philosophical works upon that question and upon political economy have been my handbooks. I would blush with shame if I thought that I belonged to that class of men who learn nothing by experience, observation and close study. I have, I hope, forever turned my back upon all financial heresies.

I can conceive of no greater calamity that could befall this country than the adoption of repudiation in any form. It would be disastrous and destructive beyond all computation. I trust that my friends will believe me when I say that I am a hard money man, and hope that this convention will have the courage to adopt a hard money platform.

Audenreith again interposed his motion to indefinitely postpone, but the motion had not been put when Thompson, of Lane, offered the following which seemed to be what the convention had been looking for all the time, and it was adopted as the sense of the convention on finances:

Resolved, That while we recognize gold and silver as the constitutional currency and the only real money, we regard any further contraction of the currency of the paper of the government as uncalled for and impolitic in the present financial condition of the country.

The resolution was adopted, as was also one by Huelat expressing it as the sense of the convention that the national convention should adhere to the two-thirds rule.

Daly offered a resolution in favor of such legislation as would give to the clerks and sheriffs no more pay than their services are worth. Animous discussion ensued, but the resolution was adopted.

Judge McArthur offered the following, which was received with some applause:

Resolved, That we cordially recommend our distinguished fellow citizen the Hon. Stephen J. Field to the democrats of the country as Oregon's first choice for the presidency, and we request our delegates to the national convention to use all proper means to procure his nomination.

Resolved, That without disparaging any of the other gentlemen who have been prominently mentioned in connection with this nomination we confidently affirm that the high character of Judge Field, coupled with his great ability as jurist and statesman and his firm and patriotic record upon all public and constitutional questions, render him, in our judgment not only the strongest but the most available democratic candidate.

Resolved, That the selection of Judge Field as the standard bearer of the democratic party in the coming contest, would assuredly enable us to carry the electoral votes of the entire Pacific coast against any candidate to be named by the republican party.

J. A. Davis offered as a substitute the following, which was received with vociferous applause:

Resolved, That while we believe that it is not good policy to instruct the delegates to the national convention, thus hampering their action, we yet think it right and proper to express the choice of this convention for president and vice president. We therefore declare that Samuel J. Tilden, of New York, is our first choice for president, and that Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, is our first choice for vice president.

John Henry Smith led off in a speech for Tilden, and was followed by Judge McArthur and Ben Hayden for Field, while Audenreith opposed both the resolution and the substitute.

Huelat moved to indefinitely postpone the whole subject, which was carried.

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of a candidate for congress.

Mar. Brown nominated John Whiteaker.

Gen. Lane nominated John M. Thompson, of Lane. Mr. Thompson peremptorily declined.

J. H. Turner nominated Geo. K. Shields.

On the first ballot John Whiteaker received 150 votes and Shields 16, so Whiteaker was declared the nominee, and the nomination was made unanimous.

Audenreith nominated P. P. Prim. E. Schutz nominated J. K. Kelly, and Fred V. Holman "really concurred,"—nominated John Burnett, and they were nominated by acclamation.

For presidential electors, the names of T. G. Owen, E. Wingate, W. D. Fenton, J. K. Weatherford, Jas. Fulton, W. H. Effinger, E. Semple, C. F. Beattie, C. Ball and E. H. Audenreith were presented. Wingate, Effinger, Ball and Audenreith were withdrawn. On the first ballot T. G. Owen of Coos, J. K. Weatherford of Linn, and James Fulton of Wasco were elected.

Delegates to the National Convention—J. J. Williams, J. W. Wisdom, A. A. Fisk, John Myers, W. H. Effinger, Charles Nickell.

State central committee: Baker, S. B. McCord; Benton, E. Carlisle; Clackamas, F. J. Bally; Clatsop, Thomas Dealy; Coos, S. H. Hazard; Curry, A. B. Tichner; Columbia, Thos. Stewart; Douglas, C. CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 8.

In the absence of the vice president, Thurman was chosen to preside.

Eaton from the committee on appropriations reported back the consular appropriation bill, [illegible].

Saunders' resolution, directing the Indian committee to inquire into the expediency of removing the Santee Indians from Nebraska to the [illegible] reservation was adopted.

Dawes moved to reconsider the vote and opposed the removal of the Poncas to any other tribe.

After the morning hour Saulsbury said that to-morrow he would call up the Kellogg-Spofford case as a privileged question.

The Ute bill was then considered.

Kirkwood moved to strike out the words "or until the president shall be convinced that every possible effort to effect the surrender has been made," so that no money shall be paid the Utes until the murderers shall be given up. Kirkwood would vote for no bill that did not provide for the surrender of the murderers.

White thought that some policy of treating the Indians should be adopted that would not change with every discovery of a mine.

Beck opposed treaties with Indians, and said that we would never have peace with the Indians while the interior department managed them. We must treat them fairly and punish them promptly. He feared that the bill would encourage the Indians to commit more crimes. He would vote for Kirkwood's amendment.

Ingalls thought it unadvisable to risk a Ute war by insisting on a surrender. The bill was not perfect, but was the best that could be done under the circumstances.

McMillan advocated Kirkwood's amendment, lest the Indians be impressed with the weakness of the government and be encouraged to commit more crimes.

Kirkwood was willing to modify his amendment so as to provide that the agreement shall not take effect until the guilty men are shown to be dead or to have left the United States. He thought the clause should be amended so as to include the men who committed outrages after the massacre.

Vest wished the criminals given up, but asked under what law they could be punished. The supreme court has decided that when we treat with tribes as independent nations we have no jurisdiction over crimes committed on their reservations.

Kirkwood said that that was a disputed point, and so long as it was he preferred not to believe there was no law to punish Indians for outrages on government officers.

Kirkwood's amendment, thus modified, was adopted—yeas 36, nays 11.

Dawes offered an amendment providing that the $25,000, set apart by the agreement of 1874 shall be expended in the practical industrial education of the youths of the Utes.

Teller, Ingalls and Allison opposed the amendment, thinking that the distribution of that fund should be left, as by treaty, in the discretion of the president.

Pendleton advocated the amendment, and pending debate the senate adjourned.

WASHINGTON, April 8.

A resolution to lend flags to the Good Templars at their Chicago meeting in August next, passed 37 to 20, although Edmunds, Hoar and Ingalls opposed lending government property to private organizations.

Hampton then called up the house joint resolution to lend artillery tents, etc., to the soldiers' union at Central City, Nebraska; passed.

Saulsbury said that he would allow the Kellogg-Spofford case to go over.

The Ute bill was then discussed.

The secretary of the treasury's response to a senate resolution on the subject, states that no reduction of clerical force can be advantageously made, except perhaps of some infirm employes who should be otherwise provided for if replaced by younger men; referred.

Dawes withdrew his amendment offered yesterday, devoting $25,000 payable to the Utes under agreement of 1874, to the industrial education of young Utes, and substituted an amendment authorizing the president in his discretion to appropriate $10,000 of the money appropriated in the bill, for education in schools established beyond the limits of lands selected, of such youth of both sexes as in his judgment may be best qualified to make proficiency in the practical industries and pursuits necessary for their self-support.

Ingalls and Allison opposed the amendment.

Williams supported the bill as it came from the committee. The committee had under consideration a bill embodying a policy applicable to all Indians but they had proof that the Ute war was merely suspended during winter and that some immediate action on this particular question was absolutely imperative. The bill was not perfect, but no better action had been brought forward by the opponents of the bill. It is easier to object than to devise, to destroy than to build. He appealed to the senate to pass this bill and avoid an Indian war.

Butler opposed the bill as temporizing with and postponing a final settlement of the Indian question, one of the most important questions before the country. Let the Indian understand that the processes of a marshal or sheriff is as effectual to protect him against wrongdoers as to punish him for doing wrong, and there would cease to be any difficulty about his becoming a citizen. Let us bring the Indians into citizenship and give them protection and the responsibilities of citizens.

Coke favored the bill. He favored anything for a change from the old plan that had brought nothing but corruption and disaster. He said that it was the intention of the Indian committee to bring in a bill as early as possible covering the whole Indian question. The present bill was in accordance with the provisions of that bill so far as the latter had been considered, and Coke thought that this bill if passed would not enact anything inharmonious with the forthcoming measure.

Teller thought that the committee had fallen into the serious error of supposing that the consent of the Indians must be procured to any legislation affecting them. On the contrary congress could and should regard the treaty as broken and legislate as it pleases. In the course of his remarks he denied that any Indians were asking for any lands in severalty.

Vest stated that there was a petition of 5000 Indians in the Indian territory before congress asking to be allowed to take lands in severalty.

Hill, of Colorado, said that it could be proved that the Sioux were making a like request.

Teller said that the appeal was for land, but not land in severalty. The Indians did not know what severalty meant, so long as they were savages. It would be as difficult to manage them when they owned land in fee simple as tribally.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

Platform literature seldom contains much of anything It would be a mistake therefore to look to the democratic platform adopted at Albany for any departure from the rule of generalities uttered to-day and forgotten to-morrow Besides the democratic party at this time is hard pressed to find issues So often have its platforms been crushed and shattered by the progress of events over which the party had no control that it finds it difficult to reconstruct anything out of the materials On this occasion the work is a mosaic of a character even more peculiar than usual Many things are demanded upon which the record of the party does not promise much in the way of achievement It is easy to resolve that we demand honesty efficiency and economy in every department of the government state and federal It is however to be regretted that the convention did not add point and force to this resolve by denouncing the late profligate administration of Grover and Chadwick and approving the legislative investigation of their misdeeds and the resulting reforms A clause like this would have taken the resolution down out of the hazy clouds and given it practical application The declaration that "we demand honest elections and honest counting of the votes" could have been made far more pointed and specific by reference to the attempt to steal the state of Maine and to the electoral outrage in Oregon Had the declaration of opposition to a protective tariff been coupled with emphatic denunciation of the democratic majority in congress for upholding protection and refusing to abolish or modify the system and had the course of the democratic speaker who has appointed the committees with a view to protecting all the monstrosities of protection (in which they have succeeded exceedingly well), been vigorously condemned we should be able to concede that the democracy of Oregon were making real progress in the direction of sounder platform literature than they have favored us with during these many years. But it will be regretfully observed that in these instances and many others the makers of this platform have missed a grand opportunity Since their resolutions in so many respects go straight against the policy and practice of their party, they ought to have insisted on reformation of their own household as preliminary to the great reform measures which they propose to carry into the government of the country

But the buttress of this platform is its bathos on "centralization" This is the subject on which the party has expressed its "alarm" at regularly recurring intervals during the past twenty years We do not know that its "alarm" is now greater than at many times heretofore, nevertheless it seems to succeed on this occasion in making itself rather more ridiculous on the subject than formerly. For it "regards with alarm the recent decision of the supreme court of the United States as having been made in the interest of the republican party, and intended to blot out the last vestige of state rights, centralize and consolidate the federal union, and change it to an empire" It would be sad, indeed, to see any considerable number of our fellow citizens "alarmed" so dreadfully as these words might seem to imply. But the fact is our democratic friends are only talking at large, for want of something specific and definite to say. They know as well as others how shallow this twaddle about an empire is. So too, the phrases about use of troops to control elections. None know better than they do that such a thing has never been done, and that there is no more danger of it than there is that the Fenians will overturn the government of Great Britain, expel Queen Victoria, and place Captain Geehagen on the throne However, these stock phrases are the common material of platform literature This time the Oregon democratic platform contains little else. It is patchwork, made up of remnants, the residue of a faded stock of antique political merchandise, bearing the trademark "democratic" As such it is simply an object of passing curiosity, nothing more.

Quite a number of democrats who really believe in honest government canvassed the Albany convention to ascertain whether a resolution could be passed condemning the corrupt practices of the Grover-Chadwick administration But it was soon found that such a resolution, if introduced, would be ignominiously defeated. Probably it would not have obtained thirty votes out of upwards of one hundred and sixty in the convention.

And so the Field boom, which had been labored on assiduously by certain small politicians, got sat down on heavily in the democratic state convention. Tilden was the man in favor, at the rate of six to one

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

How Things are Done--Confusion on Finances--The Convention sits Down on Neltner's Field Boom.

Judge McArthur's Conversion to Sound Currency--Incidents, Etc

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN

ALBANY, April 8, 1880

The convention, the proceedings of which were telegraphed in brief was opened by the Albany brass band. The chairman of the state central committee in calling the convention to order simply said

Gentlemen As chairman of the democratic state central committee, it is my duty to call the convention to order It will be necessary to select a temporary chairman

Mart Brown quickly arose and said

Gentlemen of the Convention I have the honor to place in nomination for chairman of the democratic state convention that veteran hero and statesman the Nestor of the Oregon democracy whom we all know--General Joseph Lane

The nomination was received with cheers and the nominee unanimously elected. The secretaries were chosen without difficulty the name of the assistant being W T Cook instead of Joseph Cook. The entire proceedings were harmonious until the evening session when the platform committee submitted their report. There was no discussion on this report until it came to the adoption of the resolution denouncing the U S supreme court. It was first adopted almost unanimously, but Strong of Multnomah moved to reconsider the vote upon it This was very warmly discussed by Strong Haelat, McKee and others for and by Holman, Semple and others against. As there seemed no prospect of reaching a conclusion the matter was left to a committee of three, McArthur, a hard money man J Henry Smith a fiatist, and E. H. Audenreith whose principles on on finances as stated by himself are like his parentage part Irish and part Dutch

Hence when this special committee came in this morning the same trouble was apparent and a repetition of the scenes of floundering confusion witnessed last night was again inevitable such a committee could agree on nothing and McArthur stated to the convention that they could come to no conclusion and asked that they be discharged At this, as will be seen by your report about a dozen members came to their feet with resolutions expressive of their [illegible] views on the finance question and a dozen others trying to get the recognition of the chairman in order to get a chance to make speeches As fast as the resolutions on the subject could be read motion was filed on motion to adopt, amend substitute indefinitely postpone or otherwise dispose of them and at one time there were six [illegible] [illegible] all pending at [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] endorsing Judge Field as the [illegible] for president [illegible] [illegible] by Dav [illegible] endorsing Tilden [illegible] [illegible] excitement [illegible] the convention The reading of Davis substitute [illegible] [illegible] and dozens of members jumped [illegible] [illegible] of the substitute and the greatest [illegible] [illegible] Henry Smith [illegible] [illegible] leader of the greenback [illegible] [illegible] which was received with immense applause

McArthur's advocacy of the expediency and propriety of the nomination of Justice Field was one of the [illegible] [illegible] of the [illegible] [illegible] it was the same [illegible] [illegible] of his [illegible] financial heresies.

After him came Sen Hayden who had obtained a proxy and [illegible] his seat as a [illegible] without so much as saying "by your leave" To be [illegible] [illegible] speech was one of the [illegible] we have ever heard him make and we have had our ears racked with his [illegible] voice more [illegible] a hundred times. But it was [illegible] [illegible] of his [illegible] the man with the [illegible] financial [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the floor an[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] by expressing himself as personally [illegible] [illegible] his [illegible] [illegible] McArthur [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] say too much [illegible] democracy and against [illegible] the pretensions of the sage of Gramercy Park

After Audenreith the Buelat [illegible] the floor and made a motion to lay the resolution and [illegible] on the table and the motion [illegible] a bare majority As between Field and Tilden the convention was clearly for the latter by a half dozen to one

Incidental Mention

The [illegible] of the delegates [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] W F [illegible] [illegible] eleven votes to each [illegible] three votes. Fred [illegible] and F R [illegible] both [illegible] in nomination for district [illegible] the same district but both very [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] of neatest compliments we have ever heard to Hon J M Thompson [illegible] [illegible] same as a candidate for congress Mr Thompson in declining the nomination also [illegible] [illegible] language very appropriate and paid a beautiful tribute to Gen Lane in doing so

The two young delegates from Multnomah Strong and Holman took more active part than the older delegates, and acquitted themselves generally very well though we think Holman made a mistake in his speech denouncing the United States supreme court because he saw fit [illegible] the [illegible] of the convention Strong's remarks on the same subject were apt and fitting dignified conservative and lawyer-like McKee of Multnomah also took an active part and will make himself known in party in Oregon

The Multnomah delegation was solid for the resolution demanding a reduction of the [illegible] of sheriffs and clerks, except Fleischner who voted against the resolution

Several delegates, in the wrangle on the financial plank of the platform, expressed themselves as much more concerned about the amount of money they are able to get than the kind

Jack Knott desired us to secure the passage of a resolution endorsing him as the best man to run a ferry but we failed to get the eye of Gen Lane whenever we attempted to get the floor

Charles Nickell made a good secretary and he was ably assisted by Mr Cook We owe them for favors

Semple protested against the action of the convention of the fourth district in declining to nominate a candidate for prosecuting attorney but the delegates sat down on him pretty heavily

Mr Bell had no part in the convention but he could justify his attacks on the supreme court of Oregon by no better democratic argument than the ninth resolution of the platform in which the party attacks the supreme court of the United States

The platform appears to be satisfactory to the democrats generally except the denunciation of the supreme court and the financial plank The latter though adopted with only one dissenting vote was submitted to only because nothing better could be obtained.

My Motto is

One Price Without Deviation,

No Goods Misrepresented and No Reduction on the Price Asked.

I will also state that owing to my very small expenses in doing the work myself I am enabled to sell goods at the very smallest profit As my expenses per month are from $125 to $150 I can afford to sell CHEAPER than those who have from $500 to $1500 expenses per month

There is not a merchant in the State of Oregon in my line who can purchase goods cheaper than I as I buy them direct from the manufacturers

FRIDAY MORNING APRIL 9 1880

CITY.

DEATH OF M M CARROLL—The Vancouver Independent contains the following additional particulars of the death of Sergeant Carroll of Company K 1st Infantry, a telegraphic account of which has appeared in THE OREGONIAN. He was present at the post and had just come in preparatory to going to dinner. He went into the sergeant's room at the guard house and a minute or so afterward a shot was heard and those persons near by went in at once and saw that he was shot fatally. It seems that he was in the room alone sitting in an easy chair smoking his pipe and the presumption is fair that he was either handling his revolver, which he wore on duty, or dropped it and it exploded accidentally. The ball entered his neck under the chin coming out through the back of the head at the base of the brain. The wound was clean and there were no powder marks. Injustice has been done in the reports of the affair by Portland papers, which say it was a suicide. All the circumstances point to the contrary. He was sober and contented and was never known to complain about anything. He occupied a favored position, and always appeared cheerful, and the idea of suicide has no foundation whatever. None of his comrades or the officers at the post think his death was caused by anything but the purest accident.

A BUSY THOROUGHFARE.—First street, from Morrison south to Hall has never before presented as busy a scene as during his week. Every factory small and large is overcrowded with work, and the large number of trucks, passing from 7 A. M. until dark indicate that the northern portion of the city by no means monopolizes the commerce of Portland. Smith Bros & Watson report a great demand for iron manufactures. They are turning out six tons of castings per day four tons of which are for the O R & N Co. They have just finished a forty-horse power locomotive boiler and pump for the use of the government at the Cascade locks and a forty-horse power boiler and engine for a new saw mill at Spokan Falls. They are also putting in a larger engine for the government snag boat.

THE FISHERMEN'S STRIKE.—The strike among fishermen on the lower Columbia continues and prevents active work by the canneries. Wm. Hume & Co and Cutting & Co are running on an arrangement with their men by which the rate of pay for work done during the strike is to be whatever may be determined by the final compromise of the pending troubles. The terms asked by the men, 60 cents per fish, is really more than the canneries can afford to pay at the rates ruling for salmon, and unless the men accede to the old terms which under the circumstances are fair enough, the establishments will probably remain idle during the entire season.

CASE OF SMALLPOX.—We are informed that there is a well defined case of smallpox in East Portland. Mr J Burdin, a resident of that city, was taken ill some days ago and Dr Rafferty was called. The symptoms soon assumed a decided appearance of smallpox and Dr J. A. Chapman was called in for consultation. An examination of the patient was made, and the two physicians gave it as their professional opinion that it was a well defined case of confluent smallpox. Such being the conclusion of the attending physicians, the authorities of East Portland ought to observe every possible precaution to prevent the spread of the disease.

THE DOG PROBLEM.—The destruction of canines costs the tax payers of Portland a round sum. The common council paid the neat little sum of $116 to the pound master at the last meeting, for killing and burying dogs. The position of dog killer is certainly a moderately lucrative one whatever other drawback it may have. Many thousands of dollars have been paid out by the patient tax payer during the past ten years for thinning out the canine species, and yet dogs are just as numerous as ever. Really the problem of "what shall we do with our dogs?" is becoming a serious one, and its solution demands more than a passing notice.

BETHEL SERVICES.—The Astorian says John McNeill, assistant missionary from the Portland Seamen's Bethel, will conduct a meeting to be held in the Astoria Young Men's Christian Association rooms, over C L Parker's store, at 7.30 P. M., on Friday April 9th. John McNeill particularly invites fishermen, longshoremen and all his brother sailors to attend this meeting.

EXCURSION TO CORVALLIS.—Willamette Engine Company will give a grand railroad excursion through the beautiful country on the west side to Corvallis on Sunday, May 2d. The train will leave Portland at 7 A. M. and return the same day. Tickets for the round trip $3. Further particulars hereafter.

HORSES IN TRAINING.—At the East Portland trotting park may be seen a number of fine horses being trained and put in order for the state fair and Fourth of July races. Some of them are the most noted flyers on the north Pacific coast, and will make such records as were never before known in Oregon.

PORTLAND-VANCOUVER ROAD.—Work on this road has been suspended this week, while the boat is bringing up the lumber necessary to complete the bridge. On Monday the workmen will resume operations, and in ten days thereafter will conclude their labors.

NO BETHEL MEETINGS TO-MORROW.—In consequence of the absence of Chaplain Stubbs, who is to preach in the Congregational church, at Astoria, on next Sabbath, the usual Bethel services in this city will not be held Sunday.

GONE TO ROSEBURG.—Lieut T W Symons, engineer officer, left here on Monday for Roseburg, to commence the work of improving the overland stage road, for which an appropriation of $10,000 has been made.

STEAMER.—A dispatch from Astoria states that the steamer State of California will leave for Portland this morning at 5 o clock.

In the death of Mrs Babbitt the Ladies' Relief society has sustained the community [illegible] which was what she came to [illegible] the visiting committee [illegible] the heart work [illegible] faithful performance of the duties of that office. She had a most loving heart and the tenderest sympathies for the deserving poor and suffering but she also possessed that clear well balanced judgment so essential to perform charitable work wisely and well

In her pure and wholly Christian life her Christian love her Christian zeal her memory stands before us as a bright example for us to follow. Hers is truly the death of the righteous who rest from their labors and their works do follow them

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA!

Read the following testimonials not from persons 3 000 miles away whom no one knows but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands can be seen at our office

Forest Grove Oregon March 19 1880

I hereby certify that I have used the Oregon Kidney Tea and obtained immediate relief. It is God's blessing to humanity. I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted. I am now nearly 90 years old came to Oregon in 18[illegible] in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company and since I begun using the Oregon Kidney Tea I enjoy good health

DAVID MUNROE.

Highland Clackamas Co , Or , March 20 1880

I have suffered with a disease of the kidneys for 6 or 7 years and for the last two months have been laid up with a pain in my back. A friend sent me a sample of the Oregon Kidney Tea and having used it one week I can do a good day's work. I have derived more benefit from it than from all the medicines I have ever taken

J Q. NEWBILL.

"My child," said the Captain "I'm not finding fault—no harm in putting your best foot foremost. I wish you'd do it a little more. At your age you ought to be thinking about getting married." There's very little doubt that the giddy young thing was thinking about it much more seriously than the Captain—dull as all men are—ever imagined but she was troubled about her complexion. Madame Rachel's Enamel Bloom was recommended and solved the problem. Perfectly harmless made of the most delicate plants, and wholesome in its effects it is indispensable to every lady. J A Child, druggist cor Second and Morrison

Alex Campbell who will be remembered by all old citizens of Portland but who has resided for the past five years at Eureka, Humboldt county Cal has returned to this city and opened a saloon at the corner of Second and Yamhill streets, where he will keep a quiet and respectable place and sell the best of liquors but to men only

The most popular and fragrant perfume of the day HACKMETACK. Try it. Sold by S G Skidmore & Co , Druggists, 151 First st , Portland, Oregon

These beauties that we all so prize

PORTLAND CITY HOMESTEAD.

THE LAND IN THIS ENTERPRISE LIES adjoining the city and is only from ten to fifteen minutes walk from the court house and a less distance than that from one of the best public schools in the city. It is divided into

One Thousand and Twenty-Four Lots,

Fifty by one hundred feet in size with streets sixty feet wide. Two hundred of these lots will be reserved for those who desire to improve and build this summer and fall. These lots will be sold on the same liberal terms that are offered in the Homestead proper

Price.

All lots will be sold for $100 each payable in installments of $5 per month or the small sum of 16⅔ cents per day. No interest will be charged and a good and sufficient Bond for Deed will be given upon the payment of the first installment of $ and a Warranty Deed upon receipt of last installment both without expense to purchaser

Appreciation of Values.

By reference to The Oregonian of Feb 15th, it will be found that city property has advanced twenty five per cent during the past year. As there has been no excitement the rise is wholly attributable to the increasing immigration and the growing confidence inspired by our numerous railroad enterprises and the development of our many natural resources that have hitherto slumbered for lack of energetic men to develop them

It is True,

That of all real estate investments the homestead plan is the best and safest, as all who invest are interested in making the whole property more valuable. To illustrate: Suppose A builds a house on his lot, and B owns a lot adjoining. B gets the benefit of A's improvement while A is not injured thereby. This philosophy will apply to the entire property

We have donated a lot to each of the principal churches for church purposes

In addition to the above two lots are set apart for public school purposes

Division.

The division of this property will take place when the lots are all sold or in any event, not later than the

28th February, 1881,

at the Mechanics Pavilion commencing at 10 o'clock A M public notice of which will be given by publication in two principal journals in the state

It will be made in the manner decided upon by a majority of the purchasers in the Homestead. [illegible] may appoint proxies to act for them [illegible] Parties who do not attend [illegible] the division [illegible] and by the plan settled upon by the majority of those who do so attend

It is suggested by the purchasers that division might be made by placing the number of each lot in one wheel or box and the name of each party in [illegible] the homestead in another. The number will be drawn from one and a name [illegible] the other and the lot so drawn deeded to the person whose name is so drawn [illegible]

All but the first installment must be paid at the banking house of Ladd & Tilton in the city of Portland

Attention! Attention! Attention!

Is called to the fact that we have just received, per steamer State of California, a LARGE BANKRUPT STOCK, purchased in New York by MR. J FRANKLIN at 50 cents on the dollar, and the way we intend to show you that what we say is so, and not merely bragging, is by giving you a Price List that will astonish you all, and if these figures are not the LOWEST in Oregon, we will stand aside and take a back seat. Competition is the life of trade, and there is so much competition in Portland that goods must be sold low to gain trade and owing to the facilities we have in having our own wholesale house in San Francisco at 18 and 20 Battery street, we will again state that our prices cannot be beat.

CITY.

DEATH OF M M CARROLL —The ... Independent contains the following additional particulars of the death of ... Sergeant Carroll of Company K, 21st Infantry a telegraphic account of which has appeared in THE OREGONIAN He was preparing ... at the post and had just come in preparatory to going to dinner He went into the sergeant's room at the guard house and a minute or so afterward a shot was heard those persons near by went into ... and ... saw that he was shot fatally It seems that he was in the room alone sitting in an easy chair smoking his pipe and the presumption is fair that he was either handling the revolver, which he wore on duty in dress ... and it exploded accidentally The bullet entered his neck under the chin ... coming out through the back of the head at the base of the brain The wound was clean and there were no powder marks Injustice has been done in the reports of the affair by ... papers, which say it was a suicide All the circumstances point to the contrary He was sober and contented and was never known to complain about anything. He occupied a favored position, and always appeared cheerful, and the idea of suicide has no foundation whatever None of his comrades or the officers at the post think his death was caused by anything but the purest accident

A BUSY THOROUGHFARE —First street from Morrison south to Hall has never before presented as busy a scene as during this week Every factory, small and large is overcrowded with work, and the large number of trucks, passing from 7 A M until dark indicate that the northern portion of the city by no means monopolizes the commerce of Portland. Smith Bros. & Watson report a great demand for iron manufactures. They are turning out six tons of castings per day four tons of which are for the O, R & N Co They have just finished a forty-horse power locomotive boiler and pump for the use of the government at the Cascade locks and a forty-horse power boiler and engine for a new saw mill at Spokan Falls. They are also putting in a larger engine for the government snag boat.

THE FISHERMEN'S STRIKE.—The strike among fishermen on the lower Columbia continues and prevents active work by the canneries ... Hume & Co and Cutting & Co, are running on an arrangement with their men by which the rate of pay for work done during the strike is to be whatever may be determined by the final compromise of the existing troubles. The terms asked by the men, 60 cents per fish, is really more than the canneries can afford to pay at the rates ruling for salmon, and unless the men accede to the old terms which, under the circumstances are fair enough, the establishments will probably remain idle during the entire season.

CASE OF SMALLPOX.—We are informed that there is a well defined case of smallpox in East Portland. Mr. J. Burdin, a resident of that city, was taken ill some days ago and Dr. Kelly was called. The symptoms soon showed a decided appearance of smallpox, and Dr. J. A. Chapman was called in for consultation. An examination of the patient was made, and the two physicians gave it as their professional opinion that it was a well developed case of confluent smallpox. Such being the conclusion of the attending physicians the authorities of East Portland ought to take every possible precaution to prevent the spread of the disease.

THE DOG PROBLEM.—The destruction of dogs costs the tax payers of Portland a ... sum. The common council paid the ... the sum of $116 to the pound master ... last meeting, for killing and burying ... The position of dog killer is certainly a ... lucrative one, whatever other ... it may have. Many thousands of dollars have been paid out by the patient tax payers during the past ten years for thinning out the canine species, and yet dogs are just as numerous as ever. Really, the problem of "what shall we do with our dogs?" is becoming a serious one, and its solution demands more than a passing notice

BETHEL SERVICES.—The Astorian says John ..., assistant missionary from the Portland Seamen's Bethel, will conduct a meeting ... held in the Astoria Young Men's Christian Association rooms, over C L Parker's ... at 7.30 P. M., on Friday, April 9th. ... McNeill particularly invites fishermen, ... boatmen and all his brother sailors, to attend this meeting.

EXCURSION TO CORVALLIS.—Willamette Engine Company will give a grand railroad excursion through the beautiful country on the west side to Corvallis on Sunday, May 2d. The train will leave Portland at 7 A. M. and return the same day. Tickets for the round trip $2. Further particulars hereafter.

HORSES IN TRAINING —At the East Portland driving park may be seen a number of fine horses being trained and put in order for the State Fair and Fourth of July races. Some of these are the most noted flyers on the north Pacific coast, and will make such records as were never before known in Oregon.

PORTLAND-VANCOUVER ROAD —Work on this road has been suspended this week, while the ... is bringing up the lumber necessary to complete the bridge. On Monday the workmen will resume operations, and in ten days thereafter will conclude their labors.

NO BETHEL MEETINGS TO-MORROW —In consequence of the absence of Chaplain Stubbs, who is to preach in the Congregational church at Astoria, on next Sabbath, the usual Bethel services in this city will not be held Sunday.

GONE TO ROSEBURG —Lieut. T. W. Symons, engineer officer, left here on Monday for Roseburg to commence the work of improving the ... stage road, for which an appropriation of $10,000 has been made.

STEAMER.—A dispatch from Astoria states that the steamer State of California will leave for Portland this morning at 5 o'clock.

F Hylebos, of Steilacoom W. T). Bishops MacEvilly of Galway, and Gillhooly of Elphin were each forwarded similar drafts for $270 each The committee are worthy of thanks for the successful result of their labors.

Father Blanchet of Jacksonville acknowledges the receipt of the sum of $42, which the generous citizens of Linkville Lake county kindly donated to the Irish relief fund, The whole amount has been forwarded to the Bishop of Galway

The sum of $18 is acknowledged from Right Rev Æ. Junger, Bishop of Nesqualy being the subscriptions of three persons towards the Irish famine fund. This amount makes nearly $400 from Vancouver, W T

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA!

Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands can be seen at our office

Forest Grove Oregon, March 19 1880

I hereby certify that I have used the Oregon Kidney Tea, and obtained immediate relief It is God's blessing to humanity I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted I am now nearly 90 years old came to Oregon in 1812 in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company and since I begun using the Oregon Kidney Tea I enjoy good health

DAVID MUNROE.

Highland Clackamas Co , Or , March 20 1880

I have suffered with a disease of the kidneys for 6 or 7 years and for the last two months have been laid up with a pain in my back A friend sent me a sample of the Oregon Kidney Tea and having used it one week I can do a good day's work I have derived more benefit from it than from all the medicines I have ever taken

My child," said the Captain "I'm not finding fault no harm in putting your best foot foremost I wish you'd do it a little more At your age you ought to be thinking about getting married " There's very little doubt that the giddy young thing was thinking about it much more seriously than the Captain—dull as all men are—ever imagined but she was troubled about her complexion Madame Rachel's Enamel Bloom was recommended, and solved the problem Perfectly harmless, made of the most delicate plants, and wholesome in its effects, it is indispensable to every lady J A Child, druggist cor Second and Morrison

PORTLAND

C TY HOMESTEAD.

THE LAND IN THIS ENTERPRISE LIES adjoining the city and is only from ten to fifteen minutes walk from the court house and a less distance than that from one of the best public schools in the city . It is divided into

One Thousand and Twenty-Four Lots,

Fifty by one hundred feet in size with streets sixty feet wide Two hundred of these lots will be reserved for those who desire to improve and build this summer and fall These lots will be sold on the same liberal terms that are offered in the Homestead proper

Price.

All lots will be sold for $100 each payable in installments of $5 per month or the small sum of 16⅔ cents per day No interest will be charged and a good and sufficient Bond for Deed will be given upon the payment of the first installment of $5, and a Warranty Deed upon receipt of last installment both without expense to purchaser

Appreciation of Values.

By reference to The Oregonian of Feb 15th, it will be found that city property has advanced twenty five per cent during the past year As there has been no excitement the rise is wholly attributable to the increasing immigration and the growing confidence inspired by our numerous railroad enterprises and the development of our many natural resources that have hitherto slumbered for lack of energetic men to develop them

It is True,

That of all real estate investments the homestead plan is the best and safest, as all who invest are interested in making the whole property more valuable To illustrate Suppose A builds a house on his lot and B owns a lot adjoining B gets the benefit of A's improvement, while A is not injured thereby This philosophy will apply to the entire property

Wee have donated a lot to each of the principal churches for church purposes

In addition to the above two lots are set apart for public school purposes

Division.

The division of this property will take place when the lots are all sold or in any event not later than the

28th February, 1881,

at the Mechanics Pavilion commencing at 10 o'clock A M public notice of which will be given by publication in two principal journals in the State

It will be made in the manner decided upon by a majority of the purchasers in the Homestead Parties interested may appoint proxies to act for them if they desire to do so Parties who do not attend at the time of the division either in person or by proxy will be bound by the plan settled upon by the majority of those who do so attend

It is suggested by the purchasers that division might be made by placing the number of each lot and block in a wheel or box and the name of each party interested in the homestead in another—then a name will be drawn from one and a number from the other and the lot so drawn deeded to the person whose name is so drawn when all payments are made.

All but the first installment must be paid at the banking house of Ladd & Tilton in the city of Portland

Persons from a Distance

Desiring a share may forward $5 00 to the General Manager and a bond will be immediately forwarded

Attention! Attention! Attention!

Is called to the fact that we have just received, per steamer State of California, a LARGE BANKRUPT STOCK, purchased in New York by MR. J. FRANKLIN at 50 cents on the dollar, and the way we intend to show you that what we say is so, and not merely bragging, is by giving you a Price List that will astonish you all, and if these figures are not the LOWEST in Oregon, we will stand aside and take a back seat. Competition is the life of trade, and there is so much competition in Portland that goods must be sold low to gain trade, and owing to the facilities we have in having our own wholesale house in San Francisco at 18 and 20 Battery street, we will again state that our prices cannot be beat.

The Wheat Market.

The only transaction of consequence in wheat during the week was the purchase of 400 tons of Walla Walla, free on board at $1 75 per ctl. It was made to complete a cargo, and so was at a higher rate than would have been paid had there been no special purpose or necessity in the transaction. With this single exception, nothing at all has been done. The news of a vast accumulation of grain in California warehouses has tended to dull the market, operating with the fact that there is no tonnage in port and none in immediate prospect. The few vessels now here have practically completed loading and will have quick dispatch. A good lot of valley wheat would probably not bring more than $1 75 and first quality Walla Walla would probably not go over $1 70. Even at these figures the tendency of the market is downward.

The Fisheries.

Nothing of consequence has yet been done at the fisheries on the lower river, as the strike continues and obstructs the entire work. Although all the canneries are prepared to commence operations, it is deemed best to let them stand idle than to pay rates for fish which would preclude the possibility of profit and perhaps render the business a losing game. Hardly enough has been done to test the run; but it is thought that it will be fully up to the average. The prevailing weather will start a rise in the river which must bring fish in by the million, and if matters are not soon accommodated, the prime season will soon slip by without anything having been done.

MARK LANE REPORT.

Good Prospect for the Coming English Harvest—Decline in the London Market.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LONDON, April 7.—The Mark Lane Express says that the sowing of spring crops is well forward throughout the kingdom. Autumn sown wheat is rather backward, and in late sown fields in some districts is thin, but generally speaking the agricultural situation leaves little to be desired. It is expected that the bulk of grain in Scotland will be sown three weeks earlier than last year. Supplies of home grown wheat, both in Mark Lane and country markets have again been light. Prices have tended upward, as reserves in growers' hands are doubtless becoming very small. With such a scarcity the English grain consumption of foreign must greatly increase before harvest, but as the weather hitherto has been favorable for growing crops, millers have steadily adhered to the policy of merely supplying their immediate requirements. Stocks in granaries must also be getting very low, as imports since the 1st of January have not suffered from home requirements, to say nothing of the quantity exported. Notwithstanding these facts, trade, partly owing to Easter holidays and elections, has been apathetic. Country millers have been the principal buyers. There has been an entire absence of speculation, as the existence of a ring in America despite the depletion of stock paralyzes enterprise. The tendency of prices has been rather downward, imports and shipments from America for the moment being rather larger. American wheat showed a decline of 6d on Friday. Arrivals at ports of call have been moderate. In consequence of favorable weather and a slight decline American wheat is 1s 6d@2s lower. Maize declined similarly in consequence of larger supply. Wheat for shipment, in consequence of large offerings from America, declined 2s. Maize is quiet and 6d to 9d lower. Sales of English wheat last week, 24,609 quarters at 45s 4d per quarter, against 42,858 quarters at 40s 11d per quarter for the corresponding week of last year.

Imports into United Kingdom for the week ending March 27th were 489,989 cwt of wheat and 50,-242 cwt of flour.

Catarrhal

DR SCA

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local and finally constitutional.

2. That, being constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.

4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Bronchitis, Leucorrhœa, and Consumption.

5. That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations and Insoluble Snuffs, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:

MRS. J. SWARTZ, JR., 200 Warren St., Jersey City, cured of 18 years Chronic Catarrh.

&c. &c. &c. &c. &c.

A real cure for this terrible malady, is the most important discovery for the relief of human suffering, since vaccination. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is sold by all Druggists, or delivered by D. B. DEWEY & Co., 46 Dey St., N. Y. for $1.50 a package. To Clubs, six packages for $7.50. Dr Wei De Meyer's Treatise, with full explanations and overwhelming proofs, is Post-paid and sent free to anybody.

SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
